DAMPING PLATE / NIMBUS

"Harmonic Resolution Systems' products work, and work very well. They comprise a true system for addressing vibration and its deleterious effects on the performance of audio equipment -- the most effective such system I've used."

The HRS Damping Plate/Nimbus System incorporates a highly effective design to eliminate component chassis noise revealing a new level of musical performance. They are precision manufactured from billet-machined aircraft aluminum and proprietary HRS polymers. A very specific amount of mass, stiffness, and damping from these products eliminates chassis resonance problems and transforms residual chassis energy to heat. This is a special system utilized by audiophiles and industry professionals as their reference chassis noise reduction system.
